Smellagram

Michael Kahane / Amira A.Pettus

Meet Michael.

He is on his first trip to Bangkok, Thailand and is very excited to be experiencing all of the new sights and smells of the city. For his first night he decides to explore.

Michael stumbles upon a hidden, backstreet market and decides to stop and eat. Overwhelmed by the fragrant food, Michael pulls out his phone and accesses Smellagram to record the moment.

On Michael's last night he decides to end his trip by sharing his adventure. He wants his family and friends to experience the same aromas that he did so he makes a "tape."
